BELIEVERS IN THE ART OF FURNITURE MAKING

We design and produce high-class and ecological safe handmade furniture of uncompromising quality.

Our mission to bring new life to classic shapes and motifs using traditional technologies and materials.

We live in a passion for beauty, and we manufacture the product that can fill your home with refined style, comfort, elegance, and best quality.

HANDCRAFTED FURNITURE FORMED EXCLUSIVELY WITH NATURAL MATERIALS

Every frame across our range is made of solid wood. We source FSC-certified pre-dried, well-prepared, moisture-proof wood, to ensure durability that will last generations. Most of our furniture is made using oak, walnut, cherry, redwood, and ash, but our traditional approach to furniture design and construction means we can build bespoke furniture to customer order in almost any wood you choose.

Not every furniture manufacturer – not even every luxury furniture brand – places such emphasis on longevity. It is meticulous work, requiring skills honed over decades.

We use only water-based glues and water-based lacquers and all joinery is carried out by traditional methods, without a nail to be found.

MANUFACTURING PROCESS

Our manufacturing principles are based not only on perfect design and elegance but also on high-quality and environmentally friendly materials.

Tensioned jute webbing creates a firm foundation for all the springs, which are handsewn and bound by our craftsmen. The next step is filling. The inner filling of any soft furniture is formed of several layers. Each layer is covered with protective mechanical fabric and placed by hand. Making handcrafted furniture is fine art.

One of the filler layers is latex, which is a hypoallergenic material with orthopedic qualities. It's a superior product to the polyurethane foam more commonly used by most furniture makers. The next filler is a layer of the horsehair, and it's this that provides a product's form. Horsehair is irreplaceable in the production of high-quality furniture because of its elasticity, firmness and eco-friendly properties. It also maintains the original shape of the product and is resistant to moisture absorption.

Each item of furniture is made assembled and filled entirely by hand, by a carefully selected team of skilled specialists using traditional techniques. The wood itself is processed using and state-of-the-art technology, with detailed wooden elements made exclusively by master craftsmen.

Our approach allows us to customize any product, whether that's with a different finish, another kind of solid wood, alternative furnishing fabric or an increase or decrease in size.

HELEN COLLECTION

SUSTAINABILITY

We only have one world and it's vital we protect it. It's our belief that we should conserve the world's ecological balance. For these reasons, we use only wood approved by the Forest Stewardship Council, environmentally friendly materials of the highest quality, water-based glues and lacquers and, by using traditional furniture-making techniques, minimize waste.

Every year our company plants trees in order to maintain the natural balance of nature.

is the goddess of the dawn and Northern winds who brings daylight to gods and people and directs the life-giving energy flow to sparkling stars. She is patient, sensitive, deeply romantic and slightly light-hearted and youthfully frisky. She colours the sky with arabesque north light cascades. But at the same time she has a giant volcano inside which sudden eruption can give us many surprises.

MARY

is a touchstone of womanhood and care. Sending forth heat and encompassing everyone with attention she is able to create an atmosphere of engrossing cosiness which plunges one in the bliss of full relaxation and non-attachment to the solitudes of the outer world. Being an ideal quintessence of modern singularity and conventional classics she carries something mystical, strange and unknown. She needs stillness and tranquillity and dreams about a place for hiding from routine fluster but at the same time being in the limelight.

TANGO

is a love story told in a dance. The strictness of traces underlines the exterior reserve of his nature and absolutized intelligent aristocraticism for concealing the impetuous passion which strains at the leash. The caprice of its nature balances on the thin edge of non-attachment from the worldly and all-absorbing desire, timidity, frivolity, uncovert aggressiveness and endless fondness.

RONNY OTTOMAN

Ronny is the life of the party. He is sociable and merry. Ronny loves travelling and finding something new. He beholds the world open-heartedly and assuredly marches towards the unknown. New experience, new acquaintances open new verges in himself intensifying his mental beauty, Ronny's altruism and devotion are so great that one can find support and implacable desire to share all his joys and hardships even in his silent presence.
